Code of Conduct for students

As a community of scholars, Seth Kesarimal Porwal College is committed to maintaining a safe, inclusive, and respectful environment that fosters academic excellence, personal growth, and social responsibility. The Code of Conduct outlined below sets forth the expectations for student behaviour and serves as a guide for promoting a positive and productive learning environment. By enrolling at Seth Kesarimal Porwal College, students agree to abide by this Code of Conduct and to uphold the values of integrity, respect, and responsibility.

- 1. Academic Integrity: Committed to upholding academic integrity by maintaining honesty in all my work, refraining from cheating, plagiarism, and misconduct. I will complete assignments, exams, and projects independently, unless instructed otherwise, and attend classes regularly, arriving on time and meeting deadlines for all academic responsibilities.
- 2. Respect and Courtesy: Committed to fostering a culture of respect, inclusivity, and courtesy. I will treat all students, faculty, staff, and visitors with dignity and respect, acknowledging and valuing diverse backgrounds, cultures, and identities. I will communicate with politeness and respect in all interactions, whether in person or online.
- 3. Campus Behaviour: Committed to maintaining a positive and respectful presence on campus. I will uphold appropriate behaviour during college activities, adhere to the college's dress code policy, and refrain from using, possessing, or distributing illegal substances, including drugs and alcohol, while on campus.
- 4. Use of College Resources: Committed to responsible stewardship of college resources. I will utilize facilities, such as libraries, laboratories, and equipment, in an ethical and
